

CAE-590: Financial Management and Accounting Systems Office (10A3A)

This page has been made public for vendors

Abstract

The VA application is being developed and maintained by the Financial Management and Accounting Systems Office (10A3A).

Explanation

The Financial Management and Accounting Systems Office (located in Washington, DC and Austin, TX) establishes and implements policies and procedures governing financial management and accounting, internal controls management, and analysis of financial information and activities in support of financial statement reporting.

References

1. VA Functional Organization Manual Version 3.0a, section "Financial Management and Accounting Systems Office (10A3A)".