

CAE-218: Administrative and Loan Accounting Center (241A)

This page has been made public for vendors

Abstract

The VA application is being developed and maintained by the Administrative and Loan Accounting Center (241A).

Explanation

The Administrative and Loan Accounting Center (ALAC), located in Austin, Texas, provides financial management support to VA's administrative accounting and housing programs by performing accounting, financial reporting, voucher examining, payments, budget support, verification, recertification, reclamation, limited payability, and financial advisory services for these national operations.

References

1. VA Functional Organization Manual Version 3.0a, section "Administrative and Loan Accounting Center (241A)".