

CAE-362: IT Workforce Development

This page has been made public for vendors

Abstract

The VA application is being developed and maintained by IT Workforce Development.

Explanation

IT Workforce Development prepares VA IT professionals to better serve Veterans and achieve personal career goals through the delivery of targeted, competency based skills, and development programs. The office is responsible for the design, development, and delivery of IT specific training to the OI&T workforce using various modalities.

References

1. VA Functional Organization Manual Version 3.0a, section "IT Workforce Development".